Before volunteering, please see the NSBF Volunteer Responsibilities sheet.

North Shore Business Forum Volunteer Responsibilities

We appreciate all who volunteer to help. But it's critical that if you cannot fulfill your responsibility, or have any questions whatsoever, you contact your mentor immediately. We also ask that you volunteer only if you have been attending NSBF meetings for at least six months.

Greet: Set up table at the door by 7:00AM. Greet visitors and collect the $9.00 fee from all but the speaker. At end of the meeting, pay the Danversport Yacht Club. You should put out "Print-In" Sheet, membership books, Info sheet to add name to the book, receipts, etc. Before Friday, ensure that there are enough of these supplies for the meeting. "Mentors": David Bateman

Welcome New Members: Assist Greeter with setting up. Organize name tags, etc. Sit at greeter table so you can hand out 5-minute raffle tickets and sell "The Book". You'll also welcome new members before the meeting to inform them more about how the meeting will operate and make them feel welcome. After the meeting, if possible, thank them for coming and ask that they keep coming. "Mentors": Julie Spreadbury and Charlene St. Jean

Host: Master of Ceremonies for the meeting. As you will be introducing the speaker, you should contact the speaker to confirm and give directions, to explain the process and to obtain an introduction. "Mentor": TBD

Schedule Speakers: Schedule speakers at least two months prior to the first meeting of the month. Send introductory memo, then confirmation letter. (These are available at NSBF website.) Be sure to tell the speaker to allow a total of 30 minutes (including questions) and that the presentation should not be an infomercial. Send the info about the speaker to both the host and the webmaster (Jeannette Sullivan) as soon as possible. "Mentor": Kate Ritter and Brett Kirkpatrick
